MEDIA GUIDELINES AND POLICIES

MEDIA CREDENTIALS: All requests should be directed to the Warriors media relations office in writing at least 36 hours prior to the game you wish to cover. Since space is limited, media accommodations are on a priority basis. Press and photo credentials are issued to accredited members of the media for the purpose of providing access to the press room, dining area, locker rooms and seating areas. Credentials may be picked up at the press gate, located in the northeast corner of the arena, on the lower level. Credentials must be worn at all times and are non-transferable.

PRESS PARKING/PRESS GATE: Press parking is located on the north side of the arena in lot H. Parking passes must be secured in advance with the media relations department and can be picked up at the 66th Avenue entrance to the arena. The press gate is located in the northeast corner of the arena, on the floor level. All members of the media must enter the building through the press gate.

PRESS ROOM: The press room is open to the working media and game staff only. The room is located at the north end of the arena on the lower level and is open two hours before game time. Telephones, fax service, game notes, statistics, quotes and out-of-town scores are available in this area. Media will be assigned seats with a seating chart posted in the press room.

PRE-AND POST-GAME INTERVIEWS: In accordance with NBA policy, the locker rooms are open to members of the media until 45 minutes before game time and within 10 minutes after the game. Players and coaches are available for interviews at those times. Only working members of the media with valid credentials will be admitted to the locker room.

GAME NOTES AND STATISTICS: Game notes and programs are available in the press room two hours before each game. Statistics are distributed to the working media during the game and are also available in the press room. Post-game notes and quotes are distributed a short time following the completion of the game.

FAX SERVICE: The Warriors will provide complimentary fax service to members of the working media following each game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Limited space is available at each end of the court for both television and still photographers. Photographers must stay in the designated area and are asked to be considerate of season ticket holders seated directly behind them.

MEALS: A pre-game meal is served on the east side of the arena, on the lower level, two hours before each game. Beverages and snacks are available in the press room at halftime and following each game.

PRACTICE POLICY: The Warriors practices are closed to the public, but open to the media. The players and coaches are available for a short time immediately following the practice for interviews. Please contact the Warriors media relations department to confirm practice times and the availability of the players and coaches. Interviews lasting longer than five minutes should be scheduled in advance with the Warriors media relations department. Photographers and television crews may tape only the first 15 minutes of practice and/or conduct broadcast interviews at the conclusion of practice.

PLAYER PERSONNEL GUIDE

ACTIVE LIST: The maximum number of active players is 12 except from time to time as appropriate, but for no more than two consecutive weeks at a time, a team may carry 11. At no time shall a team be permitted to dress fewer than eight players for a regular season game or nine for a playoff game. During the off-season and training camp, teams may carry no more than 20 active players.

INJURED LIST: A player transferred to the injured list due to injury or illness, must stay there for no fewer than five games.

TEN-DAY CONTRACT: On or after the 56th day following the first game, a team may sign a player to a 10-day contract. This procedure may be used only to replace a player assigned to the injured list. No player may be signed to more than two-10-day agreements.

TRADING DEADLINE: No trades are permitted after 9:00 p.m. Eastern time on February 21, 1991. From that point to the end of the regular season, player additions must be made through waiver procedure, or by signing free agents.

WAIVERS: From August 15, 1990 to the end of the regular season, clubs may claim waived players within 48 hours after notice. Players waived at any other time, may be claimed within 10 days. If no team claims the waived player, he becomes a free agent. If more than one club claims a waived player, the one with the lesser record at that time claims the player.

GUARANTEED CONTRACT DATE: On the 56th day after the first game of the regular season, all player contracts become guaranteed for the remainder of the season.

RENUNCIATION OF AMATEUR ELIGIBILITY: A person whose high school class has graduated shall become eligible for the NBA Draft if he renounces his intercollegiate basketball eligibility by written notice to the NBA at least 45 days prior to the draft. Prior to the 45 days before the draft, teams may not make direct contact with players who have intercollegiate basketball eligibility left. Clubs may contact players without remaining eligibility, but may not discuss compensation.

JIM FITZGERALD

CHAIRMAN

Jim Fitzgerald is in his fifth season as chairman of the Warriors and 18th year as an NBA team owner. He ranks third in seniority on the 27-member NBA Board of Governors—trailing only Abe Pollin of Washington and William Davidson of Detroit—and is one of just five men on the board who have been involved in team ownership during the decades of the 1970s, 80s and 90s.

Since leading a group of investors who purchased the Warriors in May 1986, Fitzgerald and team president Dan Finnane have overseen the steady growth of a franchise that attracted just 1,826 season ticket holders and ranked 17th in league attendance in 1985-86. Last season, all 41 of the team's home games at the Oakland Coliseum Arena were sell-outs, thanks to the support of over 13,000 full-season subscribers.

In addition, the sky-rocketing level of fan interest in the Warriors has been affected by the increase in the number of games offered on local television. A franchise record 71 out of 82 games will air on KPIX, KICU and the Pacific Sports Network this season, only five years after the team's TV package consisted of just 10 broadcasts.

"The past few years have been nothing short of spectacular for Bay Area sports fans," Fitzgerald says. "It's great to have world championship-caliber football and baseball teams as our neighbors. Seeing the 49ers, A's and Giants do well instinctively makes our players and staff want to work harder. I truly feel, and the fans who support us agree, that the Warriors are going to match that same level of excellence in the not too distant future."

Fitzgerald first became involved with NBA basketball in 1973 as a member of the Milwaukee Bucks board of directors. Three years later, shortly after the team's top management approved a trade which sent Kareem Abdul-Jabbar to Los Angeles, Fitzgerald organized a group of investors who purchased control of the franchise and became president and chairman of the board.

When Bucks coach Larry Costello resigned after watching the team get off to a 3-15 start in the 1976-77 season, Fitzgerald, in his first major decision as the owner of a pro sports team, elected to place a first-year assistant coach by the name of Don Nelson in charge of coaching the team and making player personnel decisions.

In their 10 years together, Fitzgerald and Nelson guided the Bucks to six straight division titles, three trips to the Eastern Conference Finals and a won-loss record bettered only the Los Angeles Lakers, Boston Celtics and Philadelphia 76ers.

"Nellie and I grew up together on the management side of the professional sports business," Fitzgerald recalls. "We were both novices—so was our first team, for that matter—three of the starters were rookies. We called ourselves the 'Green and Growing Milwaukee Bucks'—everyone from the top down was green. I think when you grow together from a zero base—make mistakes together — share success together, you form a bond that becomes very deep."

The bond which Fitzgerald speaks of is friendship and a handshake agreement with Nelson, not a written contract, which creates an owner-coach relationship that is, perhaps, unmatched in the often tumultuous world of professional sports.

Fitzgerald graduated from Notre Dame with a degree in commerce in 1947. He served in the U.S. Navy in World War II and the Korean conflict. Jim and his wife Marilyn maintain residences in Janesville, Wisconsin and Indian Wells, California. They have six children—Mike, Brian, Marcia, Jim, Jr., Carolyn and Ellen—and 10 grandchildren.

DAN FINNANE

PRESIDENT

Recognized as an innovative sports administrator, Dan Finnane is in his fifth season as president and part-owner of the Warriors. He is primarily in charge of the day-to-day management and operation of the franchise which includes setting policy and overseeing the club's vice presidents. Finnane is actively involved in negotiating player contracts, approving all major business decisions and finalizing broadcasting and advertising contracts. In addition, he has a close working relationship with the Oakland Coliseum board of directors and the City of Oakland and County of Alameda officials responsible for the operation of the Oakland Coliseum Arena.

Since purchasing the team along with Warriors Chairman Jim Fitzgerald in May 1986, the organization has made great strides in increasing its season ticket holder base, corporate sponsorship support and television coverage. To ensure the franchise's commitment to customer service, Finnane has added key executives and support staff to help implement several successful marketing, public relations and community relations programs.

Finnane first became associated with Fitzgerald in 1975, while serving as president of First Financial Group, a bank holding company in Janesville, Wisconsin. From 1980 to 1984, he was executive vice president of TOTAL-TV, Inc., the largest cable television company in Wisconsin. In addition, Finnane served on the board of directors of the Milwaukee Bucks for seven years, beginning in 1978.

Prior to 1975, Finnane was senior vice president of Dain Bosworth and Company, a Minneapolis-based investment banking firm. From 1965 to 1968, he was a registered representative of Robert W. Baird and Company, an investment banking firm in Wisconsin.

A 56-year-old native of Evansville, Wisconsin, Finnane graduated from the University of Wisconsin in 1958 with a bachelor's degree in business administration. He is a certified public accountant.

He and his wife, Carol, live in San Francisco and have five children—Cedric, Kelly, Dan, Ann and David.

DON NELSON

HEAD COACH & GENERAL MANAGER

Don Nelson, the 10th-winningest coach in National Basketball Association history, is in his third season as head coach of the Warriors. Known to most basketball fans as Nellie, the 28-year veteran NBA player/coach/general manager has amassed a career coaching record of 620-428 (.592). Red Auerbach of Boston is the only man in league history with more victories (938) and a higher winning percentage (.662).

Nelson is the only man in NBA history to have worked for the Los Angeles Lakers (player, 1963-65), Boston Celtics (player, 1965-76) and Milwaukee Bucks (coach, 1976-87)—the league's three most successful franchises of all-time, based upon regular season winning percentages. Because of his consistent association with winning franchises, Nelson has participated in more NBA playoff games (246) as a player and coach than anyone else in league history.

While Nelson's streak of nine consecutive seasons with a winning record—a run matched only by Auerbach (1955-66) and Joe Lapchick of New York (1947-56)—came to an end when the Warriors finished with a 37-45 record last season, the Warriors coach did attain four other milestones during the 1989-90 campaign:

- A member of five Celtics NBA World Championship teams from 1966-76, Nelson returned to Boston Garden and recorded his 600th career coaching victory on January 21, 1990. Ironically, each ticket for the game bore a green number 19—matching Nelson's retired jersey number which hangs above the building's legendary parquet floor—because the game was the Celtics' 19th home date of the season.
- On January 15, 1990, when the Warriors visited Indiana, Nelson became the second man in history to participate in 1,000 or more regular season games as both a player and coach, joining current Cleveland Head Coach Lenny Wilkens. A commemorative photo of Nelson and Wilkens is currently on display at the Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Massachusetts.
- By guiding his young Warriors to the league's scoring title for the first time in 14 years, Nelson became the only active NBA coach and just the seventh man in league history to lead teams which have ranked first in offense and defense—but not necessarily both in the same season. Nelson excelled as a defensive strategist during both the 1983-84 and 1984-85 seasons as his Milwaukee teams led the league in fewest points allowed.
- Nelson was recognized for his off the court contributions this past June when he received the 1990 Vincent T. Lombardi Champions Award, an honor which is named after the former pro football coach and presented annually to outstanding coaches and athletes who have dedicated themselves to making significant civic contributions. Nelson has regularly devoted time and money to several charitable causes, including Nellie's Farm Fund, a program he started in 1986 to help needy farm families in Wisconsin. He twice drove a farm tractor across the state to auction off his fish ties (which he no longer wears) and taped-up coaching shoes and gather contributions from supporters across America's Dairyland.

During the 1988-89 season, his first as head coach of the Warriors, Nelson guided the club, which had won just 20 games during the 1987-88 season, to a 43-39 regular season mark and a three-game sweep past the Midwest Division Champion Utah Jazz in the first round of the 1989 NBA Playoffs. The 23-game turnaround today ranks as the fifth-greatest in NBA history.

Nelson became one of only five coaches in NBA history with a career record 200 games over .500, joining Auerbach, Pat Riley, K.C. Jones and Billy Cunningham and nearly won an unprecedented third NBA Coach of the Year Award in 1988-89, finishing second to Cotton Fitzsimmons of Phoenix in a nationwide vote of NBA writers and broadcasters. Gene Shue, Bill Fitch and Fitzsimmons are the only other two-time recipients of the Red Auerbach Trophy.

Nelson moved into the all-time top 10 for coaching victories by passing former Golden State coach and current vice president and assistant general manager Al Attles on January 18, 1989. The Warriors colleagues will most likely swap the 11th and 12th positions on the all-time games coached list as Nelson should move ahead of Attles by pacing the sidelines for the 1,076th time in his career on December 29, 1990 in Atlanta.

The 14th coach in the Warriors' 44-year history, Nelson (80-84 record in his first two seasons) enters the 1990-91 season needing 40 more victories to become the team's third-winningest coach, trailing only Attles (557 wins) and Eddie Gottlieb (263 wins). Fifty-six more wins will move Nelson ahead of John MacLeod for ninth place on the NBA's career victories list.

Prior to joining the Warriors organization three seasons ago, Nelson was head coach and vice president of basketball operations of the Milwaukee Bucks. In his 11 seasons as the team's floor leader, Nelson became the winningest coach in the team's history with a 540-344 record. Milwaukee won 50 or more games in seven straight seasons and earned seven consecutive division titles (1980 Midwest, 1981-86 Central), which made up the second-best streak of titles in league history, trailing only Boston's run of nine straight division championships which date back to the late 1950s.

He resigned his Milwaukee post on May 27, 1987 and joined the Warriors as part-owner and executive vice president on July 1, 1987. Nelson's Milwaukee contract prohibited his involvement in player personnel matters for another NBA club until Golden State compensated the Bucks with a 1988 second round draft pick on December 29, 1987. Nelson was officially named general manager of the Warriors the next day. On April 5, 1988, Nelson announced he would take over the coaching reins of the Warriors beginning with the 1988-89 season. He filled the vacancy created by the resignation of George Karl on March 23, 1988.

Nelson played 14 years in the NBA, including his last 11 seasons with Boston. He ranks 14th in NBA history with 1,053 game appearances, which includes a streak of 465 consecutive games with the Celtics from 1967-73, which set what was at the time, a Boston team record. He led the NBA in field goal percentage in 1975 by hitting .539 of his shots.

Nelson was selected in the third round (as the 19th pick overall) of the 1962 NBA Draft by the Chicago Zephyrs. His rights were sold to the Los Angeles Lakers on September 6, 1963. He was waived by Los Angeles on October 21, 1965 and signed by Boston as a free agent on October 28, 1965. He is one of only 10 men in NBA history to have played both for the Lakers and Celtics.

As Boston's star sixth man, Nelson hit one of the most famous shots in NBA history on May 5, 1969. With the score tied and time running out in Game Seven of the World Championship Series, Nelson grabbed a loose ball and unleashed a desperation shot which bounced high off the back of the rim before it swished through the hoop on its downward flight to give the Celtics a 108-106 victory over the Lakers in Los Angeles. The win gave Boston back-to-back championships.

Born Don Arvid Nelson on May 15, 1940, Nelson grew up on his grandparents' farm in rural Illinois before attending the University of Iowa. As a Hawkeye, Nelson was a two-time All-America selection and still ranks as the school's fifth all-time leading scorer. He is the father of four children—Julie, Donn (a Warriors assistant coach), Chris and Katie, and makes his home in Alameda.

AL ATTLES

VICE PRESIDENT & ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Al Attles, a dedicated professional with a varied basketball background as a player, coach and administrator, is in his 31st consecutive season with the Warriors. Only Red Auerbach and Johnny Most of Boston and Harvey Pollack of Philadelphia have been in the NBA as long. As vice president and assistant general manager, Attles is a valued administrator and advisor for the team's basketball operations department, as well as a popular speaker in the Bay Area. He is one of only four Warriors to have his number retired (16).

A native of Newark, New Jersey, Attles joined the Philadelphia Warriors in 1960 as a fifth round draft pick out of North Carolina A&T. He was the only rookie to make the team that year and went on to enjoy an 11-year playing career, including his final two years as a player/coach. Nicknamed "The Destroyer" during his playing days, he appeared in 712 regular season games and averaged 8.9 points, 3.5 rebounds and 3.5 assists per game. Attles and Wilt Chamberlain made it into the NBA record book on March 2, 1962 in a game against the New York Knicks. As the Warriors' top two scorers, they scored a combined 117 points. Chamberlain delivered 100 points, while Attles supplied 17.

After retiring in 1971 from the playing ranks, Attles continued to coach the Warriors for 12 more years. With a record of 555-516 (.518), he is the 12th winningest coach in NBA history. The high point came in 1975 when Attles led the Warriors to the NBA World Championship by sweeping Washington in the title series. Only four other teams in league history have polished off their championship round opponents in such rapid fashion. The next season, Attles and the Warriors achieved the NBA's best regular season record (59-26) and made it as far as the seventh game of the Western Conference Finals, before losing to Phoenix. The Warriors won two Pacific Division titles under Attles (1975 and 1976). He was coach of the Western Conference All-Star team those same two years.

Attles and his wife, Wilhemina have two children, Alvin III and Erica. They make their home in Oakland.

SAM SCHULER

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Sam Schuler is in his third season with the Warriors and second season as director of player personnel. He is primarily responsible for researching and evaluating talent for future Warriors teams. He travels regularly throughout the country to get a first-hand look at prospects.

A native of Blanchardville, Wisconsin, Schuler joined the Warriors in 1988 as an assistant coach after spending three years as a scout for the Milwaukee Bucks. Before joining Don Nelson's staff in Milwaukee in 1985, Schuler spent 20 years as a high school physical education instructor and coach, including 17 years at Oak Creek High School in Oak Creek, Wisconsin, where he coached in the basketball program for nine years.

A 1965 graduate of the University of Wisconsin-LaCrosse with a degree in physical education, his wife Jean is the executive assistant to Warriors Head Coach and General Manager Don Nelson. The Schulers have three children (Kimberly, Scott and David) and reside in Alameda.

GARRY ST. JEAN

ASSISTANT COACH

Assistant coach Garry St. Jean is in his third season with the Warriors and ninth year as a member of Don Nelson's coaching staff. St. Jean rejoined Nelson prior to the 1988-89 season after spending two seasons with the New Jersey Nets as assistant coach and assistant player personnel director. St. Jean worked for Nelson and the Milwaukee Bucks from 1980 to 1986 as a college scout, assistant bench coach and as the team's assistant director of player personnel. St. Jean began his relationship with Nelson 18 years ago by helping out at the Boston Celtic's summer camps for children in Massachusetts.

A native of Chicopee, Massachusetts, St. Jean, 40, earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in physical education from Springfield College in Springfield, Massachusetts. He also completed coursework for a doctorate in education at American International College in Springfield. After receiving his B.S. in 1973, he coached his high school alma mater, Chicopee High, for eight years and compiled a 122-65 (.652) record before joining the Bucks.

As a Chicopee prep player, St. Jean was named all-state in basketball and soccer and was named to Parade Magazine's top 500 basketball list. Knee injuries cut short his college careers in both sports.

He and his wife, Mary Jane have two children, Emily and Gregory, and reside in Alameda.

DONN NELSON

ASSISTANT COACH

Named a full-time assistant coach on June 29, 1990, Nelson is in his fifth season with the Warriors. The 28-year-old son of Don Nelson formerly divided his time as a scout and assistant coach, responsible for working with 1989 Lithuanian rookie Sarunas Marciulionis. Nelson also traveled frequently both in the United States and abroad looking for future Warriors talent.

Nelson joined the Warriors in 1986, dividing his time between scouting for the team and traveling with the Athletes in Action (AIA) basketball program. As a member of AIA, Nelson first met Marciulionis during the summer of 1985 in Lithuania.

Based on Nelson's observations, the Warriors selected Marciulionis in the sixth round of the 1987 NBA Draft. League officials later disallowed the pick as Marciulionis was found to have been eight days too old to have been eligible for the draft. Therefore, he was considered a non-draft rookie. The paths of Nelson and Marciulionis continued to cross occasionally over the next two years until Soviet sports authorities allowed the Lithuanian star to become the first player from the Soviet Union to join the NBA in June 1989.

Nelson graduated from Wheaton College in Wheaton, Illinois in 1986 with degrees in physical education and christian education. He averaged 17 points a game in his four-year collegiate basketball career. Nelson is single and makes his home in Alameda.

ED GREGORY

DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING

Ed Gregory is in his fifth season with the Warriors and second campaign as the team's director of scouting. Gregory joined the Warriors in 1986 as an assistant coach to George Karl after serving as a scout for the Portland Trail Blazers for three seasons (1978-1981) and the Cleveland Cavaliers for another three-year span (1983-1986). Gregory was the Warriors acting head coach for the final 18 games of the 1987-88 season.

Prior to joining the professional basketball ranks, Gregory was the head coach at Fresno State University for 12 years (1965-1977) where he posted a 172-143 (.546) record. During his first season, he guided the Bulldogs to the California Collegiate Athletic Association title and the NCAA College Division Finals. Gregory also coached at Nevada Southern from 1963-1965 and compiled a 40-15 (.727) record.

A native of Memphis, Tennessee, Gregory, 58, served in the U.S. Air Force for two years before attending Pepperdine University in Malibu, California.

He received his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1955 from Pepperdine followed by his master's degree from the University of Southern California in 1958. Gregory resides in San Leandro.

TOM ABDENOUR

ATHLETIC TRAINER

Tom Abdenour received the highest praise from his peers when he was named the 1990 NBA Athletic Trainer of the Year by the National Basketball Trainers Association (NBTA) in June 1990. He was selected based on his commitment to playing a major role in the expansion of the NBTA's exhibit at the Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Massachusetts, presenting a paper on the incidence of lateral meniscus injury in professional basketball and working on the publication of the NBTA's annual media guide. The Basketball Hall of Fame recognized Abdenour with a plaque in November 1990.

As athletic trainer, Abdenour is responsible for the care, prevention and treatment of injuries, in addition to overseeing all of the team's travel throughout the season.

The Detroit native joined the Warriors in 1987 after serving as the athletic trainer for Weber State's 15 varsity sports programs for eight years. Prior to his stint in Ogden, Utah, Abdenour spent one year as a trainer at Hillsdale College in South Central Michigan.

Abdenour, 36, received his bachelor's degree in biology and his master's degree in science education at Wayne State University in Detroit. He is a current member of the NBTA and the California Athletic Trainers Association.

Half of the only brothers duo of its kind in NBA history, Tom's brother, Mike, is the athletic trainer for the NBA Champion Detroit Pistons. Tom and his wife, Christine have two daughters, Rebecca and Carolyn, and a new son, Thomas. They reside in San Leandro.

MARK GRABOW

CONDITIONING COACH

Mark Grabow returns for his second consecutive season as the Warriors' conditioning coach after also training the Warriors during the 1986-87 season. He is responsible for overseeing the team's conditioning, stretching, strength and diet programs.

Prior to rejoining the Warriors last season, Grabow was the conditioning coach for the Phoenix Suns during the 1988-89 season. He has trained and conditioned several teams including the 1989 Japanese National Basketball Team, the Stanford men's basketball team, the 1990 Stanford women's NCAA national championship basketball team and the Stanford men's NCAA championship tennis team. He also has trained individual athletes including Chris Mullin, Brad Gilbert, Patrick McEnroe and 14-year-old tennis sensation Jennifer Capriati. Grabow also is the conditioning coach at Pete Newell's Big Man's Camp.

An athlete himself, Grabow played for the United States soccer team in the 1975 Pan American games. He went on to play professional soccer for the Washington Diplomats in the North American Soccer League from 1975 to 1977.

A native of Patterson, New Jersey, Grabow graduated from American University in Washington D.C. in 1973 with a bachelor's degree in psychology. He captained both the soccer and baseball teams his senior year and earned eight varsity letters. Grabow makes his home in San Francisco.

JEAN SCHULER

EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT

Jean Schuler is in her fourth year with the Warriors as the executive assistant to Don Nelson. In addition to coordinating the head coach and general manager's busy schedule, she handles a wide variety of duties for the team's players and staff including travel arrangements, special projects and assisting the community relations department in scheduling player appearances.

Schuler is in her 19th year in the National Basketball Association. She started with the Milwaukee Bucks in 1972 as the executive secretary to Wayne Embry, the team's general manager. In 1985 she was joined in the Bucks' organization by her husband, Sam, who accepted a job as an assistant coach and scout. Sam currently is director of player personnel for the Warriors.

The Schulers have three children, Kimberly, Scott and David, and live in Alameda.

NATE THURMOND

DIRECTOR OF COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Basketball Hall of Famer Nate Thurmond is in his 10th season as director of community relations. He handles numerous promotional appearances, youth clinics and speaking engagements for the Warriors. Thurmond also works closely with the marketing department to develop and implement community relations programs throughout Northern California.

A 1984 Basketball Hall of Fame inductee, Thurmond played 11 seasons for the Warriors before being traded to Chicago on September 3, 1974 for Clifford Ray, the Bulls' 1975 first round draft pick and cash. He led the Bulls to their first division title and won the league's rebounding crown in 1974-75. Chicago challenged the Warriors in a seven-game Western Conference Championship series that year. Golden State won the deciding game in Oakland, 83-79, and went on to sweep Washington for the 1975 NBA World Championship.

A native of Akron, Ohio, Thurmond was traded by Chicago to Cleveland with Rowland Garrett for Eric Fernsten and Steve Patterson on November 27, 1975. He guided the Cavaliers to their first-ever winning season and only division championship in franchise history in 1975-76 and made it to the Eastern Conference Championship series against the eventual NBA Champion Boston Celtics. A knee injury on February 8, 1976 prompted him to retire at the end of the 1976-77 season, his 14th season in the league.

Thurmond is one of only three men in history to have his number retired by two NBA teams (Cleveland and Golden State) along with Oscar Robertson and Julius Erving, and one of only four men to have his number (42) retired by the Warriors. He is the NBA's sixth all-time leading rebounder with 14,464 boards. In addition, he is a member of the Warriors' top 10 in 10 different categories including being the franchise's all-time leader in games played (757), rebounds (12,771) and minutes (30,729). He was a member of the NBA All-Rookie team in 1964 and a league All-Defensive team member in 1969, '71, '72, '73 and '74. Thurmond also set the NBA record for rebounds in a quarter with 18 in a game against Baltimore.

Thurmond, 49, is a resident of San Francisco. He owns and operates "Big Nate's Barbecue," a San Francisco take-out establishment.

TOD LEIWEKE

VICE PRESIDENT OF MARKETING AND BROADCASTING

Tod Leiweke, vice president of marketing and broadcasting, is in his fourth season with the Warriors. With a staff of 24, he oversees the franchise's marketing, broadcasting, ticket sales, promotions, game operations and community relations efforts. He also works closely with Goodby, Berlin and Silverstein of San Francisco, the Warriors' advertising agency.

Since Leiweke joined the Warriors in June 1987, the franchise has shown tremendous growth in all areas of marketing and broadcasting. Under Leiweke's direction, season ticket sales have increased from 2,900 in 1987 to over 13,000 in 1990. The Warriors set a franchise record by selling out all 41 home games last season. Television exposure also has grown substantially from 20 games televised during the 1986-87 season to 71 games scheduled this season. Leiweke also added a full-time television producer/director to his staff, thus making the Warriors one of only a handful of NBA teams to do so. In addition, the organization is more actively involved in community relations efforts. Several programs are underway with a major emphasis toward helping Bay Area high school sports programs.

Prior to joining the Warriors, Leiweke was a partner in Leiweke & Company, a Kansas City-based consulting firm with his two brothers. The family-owned company assisted several professional sports teams, corporate sponsors and media organizations in their promotional efforts. Leiweke's brother, Tim is in his second full season as vice president of marketing for the Minnesota Timberwolves.

Leiweke's marketing background also includes stints in the Major Indoor Soccer League. He joined the Kansas City Comets in 1981 and continued with the New York Arrows the following year. His promotional efforts led him to become the general manager of the Arrows in 1983. At 24 years of age, he was the youngest general manager in the history of the league. Tod and his wife, Tara, reside in Alameda.

RICHARD ROGERS

VICE PRESIDENT OF FINANCE/CONTROLLER

Richard Rogers is in his fifth year with the Warriors as vice president of finance/controller. Rogers is primarily responsible for overseeing the franchise's financial, accounting and legal areas. He reports to the team president on league policy issues primarily involving the NBA's salary cap and collective bargaining agreement. Other responsibilities include assisting with player contracts, developing financial reports and maintaining detailed budget plans.

Rogers joined the Warriors in 1986 after spending seven years with Arthur Andersen and Company, an international accounting and financial consulting firm. The 36-year-old San Francisco native was based in the firm's San Francisco office.

Rogers graduated from the University of California-Santa Barbara in 1977 with a degree in psychology and completed a year of graduate work at the UCSB School of Education. He completed his accounting education at Cal State—Hayward University.

Rogers and his wife, Judy, reside in Danville.

STEVE ALBERT

TELEVISION PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Steve Albert is in his first season as the Warriors television play-by-play announcer. He is describing Warriors action on a franchise record 71 televised games this season on KPIX Channel 5 in San Francisco, KICU Channel 36 in San Jose and Pacific Sports Network.

One of the most recognized voices and names in sports broadcasting, he is the younger brother of fellow NBA announcers Marv and Al Albert. He just completed his 15th season as a play-by-play announcer for SportsChannel America and his 13th season as the voice of the New Jersey Nets. He also was the play-by-play voice of the World Basketball League on SportsChannel.

Albert was the boxing announcer and a studio host at the 1990 Goodwill Games. He continues to serve as the voice of boxing on Showtime.

Following in his brothers' footsteps, Albert has been a sports anchor for WCBS-TV, WNBC-TV and Superstation WWOR-TV in New York City. He also served as the morning drive-time sports anchor on WABC Radio.

Albert, 38, began his career in Cleveland in 1972, handling the play-by-play of the Cleveland Crusaders of the World Hockey Association. He moved back to New York in 1975 to cover the then-New York Nets of the American Basketball Association through their final championship season. Additionally, Albert's voice has been associated with three other New York teams: hockey's Islanders (1978-1980); baseball's Mets (1979-1981); and football's Jets (on radio, 1985).

A native of Brooklyn, New York, Albert graduated from Kent State University with a bachelor's degree in telecommunications. Even though his first love was basketball (he was a ballboy for the NewYork Knicks from 1965-1968), he also enjoyed playing hockey. Albert helped start the Kent State hockey team in 1970.

JIM BARNETT

TELEVISION COLOR ANALYST

Jim Barnett is in his sixth season as the Warriors' television color analyst. Barnett played 11 seasons in the NBA, including three with the Warriors (1971-1974). He was drafted by the defending World Champion Boston Celtics in the first round of the 1966 NBA Draft and spent his rookie season playing alongside Bill Russell, John Havlicek, K.C. Jones and Don Nelson. He played for seven different teams in his NBA career.

Barnett, 46, got his start in broadcasting when he was living in the Bay Area and was called in at the last minute to substitute for broadcaster Bill Russell on a Warriors/Suns playoff game in 1975.

A native of Riverside, California, Barnett was an All-America player at the University of Oregon. He was inducted into the State of Oregon Hall of Fame in 1984. He continues to play basketball and most recently was on a Portland-based team which won the 45-50 age division of the 1990 National AAU Championship. He was named MVP.

In addition to his current broadcast responsibilities, Barnett is an account executive at Jack Nadel, Inc., a direct response promotion company. He has been with the company since he retired from the NBA in 1977. He and his wife, Sandy, have lived in Orinda since 1972 (when he joined the Warriors) and have a fourteen-year-old daughter, Jennifer.

GREG PAPA

RADIO PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Greg Papa, the "Voice of the Warriors" since the 1986-87 season, will handle the team's play-by-play responsibilities for the 1990-91 season on KNBR Radio (680 AM) and the Warriors Radio Network. In addition to his announcing duties, Papa is actively involved in the club's community relations efforts as a popular speaker.

Papa also will continue to do the play-by-play work for some games for the World Champion Oakland Athletics and Big West football for another Bay Area cable sports channel.

Prior to joining the Warriors, Papa spent two years as an announcer/analyst for the Indiana Pacers' 55-station radio network. He has also done occasional work for NBC and ESPN.

The 28-year-old native of Buffalo, New York, Papa is a graduate of Syracuse University's Newhouse School of Broadcasting, which has produced many of the nation's most respected broadcasters. He was featured in Sports Illustrated during his senior year at Syracuse. Papa and his wife, Lisa, make their home in Alameda.

STEVE PHYSIOC

RADIO/TELEVISION HOST

Steve Physioc is in his second season as part of the Warriors broadcast team. Physioc, the club's radio announcer last season, assumes the new role of hosting the team's pre- and post-game and halftime updates on a number of radio and television broadcasts. In addition to his Warriors responsibilities, Physioc will continue to handle baseball broadcasts for ESPN.

Prior to joining the Warriors, Physioc was the sports director at KTVU-TV Channel 2 in Oakland. The 36-year-old sportscaster delivered weeknight reports on one of the top-rated prime time newscasts in the nation and did play-by-play work for the San Francisco Giants at KTVU.

The Kansas State graduate's broadcast background also includes play-by-play work for the Cincinnati Reds and the Cincinnati Bengals at WLWT-TV in Cincinnati and for his alma mater's basketball and football team's games on WIBW Radio in Topeka, Kansas.

Physioc and his wife, Stacey, live in Danville with their two children, Ryan and Kevin.

1989-90 SEASON: Was one of two players unanimously selected to the NBA All-Rookie First Team by NBA head coaches, along with David Robinson of San Antonio...Finished second to Robinson in a league-wide player vote for The Sporting News Rookie of the Year Award...Became the second rookie in NBA history to be the leading playmaker for a team which topped the league in scoring, joining 1973-74 NBA Rookie of the Year Ernie DiGregorio of the Buffalo Braves...Led all first-year players in assists (8.7 apg, ninth in the NBA) and steals (2.1 spg, 10th in the NBA) and was second only to Robinson with a 14.7 ppg scoring average...Posted both the third-highest assists per game average and season assists total (689) by a rookie in league annals, trailing only Mark Jackson of the 1987-88 New York Knicks (10.6 apg, 868 assists) and Oscar Robertson of the 1960-61 Cincinnati Royals (9.7 apg, 690 assists)...Robertson, therefore, is the only player to post higher averages for points (30.5 ppg) and assists as a rookie than Hardaway...Magic Johnson, Isiah Thomas, Mark Jackson and Phil Ford are the only other first-year players to rank in the NBA's top 10 in both assists and steals...Became the fourth player (and first rookie) in Warriors history to pass for 600 assists in a season, joining Guy Rodgers, John Lucas and Eric Floyd...Was also just the third rookie to open a season as a starter for a Don Nelson-coached team (joining Marques Johnson and Mitch Richmond)...Totaled 6 points (3-15 FG), 5 assists and 6 turnovers in the first two games of the season before it was discovered that he was suffering from tonsillitis...Was hospitalized for two days and missed three games before returning for the final 77 games of the season...The Warriors won 16 of their last 24 games when he recorded a double-double (points and assists) and were victorious in 13 of their final 18 outings when he had a hand in contributing 40 or more points (field goals, free throws and points from assists)...Led the team with 30 double-doubles and became the first Warrior since Rick Barry (1972-73) to register three triple-doubles in a season (1/8 vs. Denver, 2/2 vs. New Jersey and 4/3 at Orlando)...Earned NBA Player of the Week honors on 2/5 after averaging 20.0 ppg (.643 FG), 10.7 apg and 8.0 rpg in three games...Became the ninth rookie to win the league honor since it was created in the 1979-80 season...Totaled 10+ points 60 times, 20+ points 23 times (team record 14-9), 10+ assists 34 times and 10 rebounds three times...Led the team in scoring six times and in rebounding on seven occasions...Scored a season-high 28 points vs. Dallas on 4/12 and vs. Seattle on 4/22...Handed out a season-high 19 assists vs. Denver on 1/8.

COLLEGE CAREER: Passed Nate "Tiny" Archibald (1,459 points) to become Texas-El Paso's all-time leading scorer with 1,586 points over his four-year career (12.7 ppg avg.)...Named Western Athletic Conference Player of the Year after averaging 22.0 ppg and 5.4 apg during his senior season...Beat Chris Jackson and LSU, 85-74, in the first round of the 1989 NCAA Tournament...Continued to shine in post-season competition, winning the Most Valuable Player Award at the NABC All-Star Game during the NCAA Final Four weekend in Seattle and the Portsmouth Invitational Tournament in Virginia and All-Tournament honors at the Orlando All-Star Classic...Received the 1989 Frances Pomeroy Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame Award for being considered the best college player under six feet (was listed at 5-11 when his senior season began)...Scored a career-high 32 points vs. Colorado State on 3/12/89...As a junior, totaled 21 points, six rebounds, nine assists and five steals in a Western Athletic Conference Championship Game loss to Wyoming...Named to the 1988 All-WAC Second Team after posting marks of 13.6 ppg and 5.7 apg...Moved into the Miners' starting lineup as a sophomore and responded with 10.0 ppg and 4.8 apg...Averaged 4.1 ppg, 1.9 apg and 15.5 mpg as a freshman.

MISCELLANEOUS: Full name is Timothy Duane Hardaway...Signed a four-year contract with the Warriors on 8/5/89...Started for the eighth grade team, even though he was in sixth grade, at Kohl Elementary in Chicago...Attended the same high school which produced NBA All-Stars Terry Cummings and Cazzie Russell...Measured 5-2 as a freshman in high school...Led Carver to the Chicago City Championship Game in 1985, but lost to San Simeon High...Majored in criminal justice at UTEP...Parents' names are Donald and Gwendolyn...Father was a 6-3 playground legend in the Windy City...Number one professional goal is to win an NBA championship...Spends his free time watching movies, playing volleyball and listening to Janet Jackson...Wears Adidas basketball shoes, size 12.

"Tim is already the best point guard I've coached. I've seen a few who were better, but they weren't rookies."

DON NELSON, Warriors Head Coach

"We were playing in a summer league in Chicago and he was inch-for-inch on me all over the court. Now remember, this was a summer league. The younger guys usually have respect for the pros. But Tim never let up."

ISIAH THOMAS, World Champion Detroit Pistons, regarding the 1988 Chicago Pro-Am League, where Hardaway averaged 40 points a game and beat-out Thomas, Terry Cummings and Craig Hodges for MVP honors

"He's one of the toughest in the league off the dribble. He's like Kevin Johnson. You can't guard him. He gets where he wants to go."

MITCH RICHMOND, Warriors

"Ever since grammar school, coaches have tried to change it, but I've never been comfortable with what they try to do. The results are what counts."

TIM HARDAWAY on his no-rotation jump shot

"My high school coach told me that a man could be one month older than you, one year older than you or 10 years older than you. He always has more experience than you in life. Even if you know he's wrong, listen to what he has to say."

TIM HARDAWAY on being a rookie

"I care about the character of our players. Rod's a good example for younger players. He's a smart person. He's a terrific person. He plays within his ability, and he's a team guy."
DON NELSON, Warriors Head Coach

"I think Rod would be wonderful coach if he should ever want to choose that as a profession. He understands our outlook. He's the logical choice."
DON NELSON, Warriors Head Coach regarding his possible selection of Higgins to serve as the team's assistant coach during a four-game road trip in April 1990.

"Rod is a perfect example of persistence and timing. He is the kind of player all coaches love to have around. He knows the game, understands his role and the role of his teammates and his three-point shooting is an added advantage."
AL ATTLES, Warriors Vice President & Assistant General Manager

"We just kind of identified with one another. He felt comfortable with me. I didn't try to force myself on him. We even got closer when I left (Chicago), surprisingly, and we've maintained a real close relationship."

HIGH SCHOOL: Came from the same school which produced Ricky Calloway, LaSalle Thompson and Louis Orr (Withrow High in Cincinnati)...Measured 6'4" and played behind Calloway in his junior year, his first in organized ball...Named First Team All-City and Third Team All-State after averaging 18.0 ppg, despite making only .370 of his free throws, and 16.5 rpg as a senior...Team went 21-4 and made it to the final 16 of the state tournament...Pulled down 32 rebounds in a district tournament game against Dayton Meadowdale.

MISCELLANEOUS: Full name is Tyrone Hill...Nickname is "T"...Parents' names are Eunice and Eddie...Intends to buy them a house and a car with his NBA earnings...Is the third youngest of 13 children and one of nine sons in the family...Brother Eddie was an All-Big Ten defensive tackle at Ohio State...Earned his bachelor's degree in communications arts at Xavier and most likely would have pursued a career as either a corporate spokesperson or a sales and marketing professional if he had not made it to the NBA...Helped narrate Xavier's basketball recruiting tape...Chose XU over UNLV and Auburn...Says if he could be anyone for a day, he would like to be Don Nelson...Enjoys music performed by Anita Baker and Warriors fan/Oakland native M.C. Hammer...Favorite TV show is "The Cosby Show"...Relaxes by going to the movies or reading...Wears size 15-½ shoes.

"All of the research that we've done shows that players who rebound in college rebound in the pros. There are a lot of other variables, but that has been a consistent finding through the work that we've done over the years on the draft. We know he's going to do a good job in that area."

DON NELSON, Warriors Head Coach on Hill's rebounding ability

"Tyrone has got the heart of a lion. He's relentless. He rebounds in traffic. He doesn't just get a lot of missed free throws and long jumpers. He gets the tough, money rebounds."

PETE GILLEN, Xavier University Head Basketball Coach

"Sometimes it's like taking candy from a baby. Sometimes it's like taking dinner from a man."

TYRONE HILL on rebounding

"If I keep playing the way that I've been playing and just keep getting stronger mentally and physically, I think I'll be a good player in the NBA. We all have pressures. We have pressure at work to perform, we have pressure to take care of our families, so this is just one of those things that you have to go through."

TYRONE HILL on facing the pressure to perform

"Boo is the little person in my head that keeps telling me, 'Beware of the unexpected, or you are in serious trouble.' I look at tapes of our opponents before every game, and that little voice reminds me just before we play, 'Relax, play the way you can and no one can stop you.'"

TYRONE HILL on the inner voice he listens to

COLLEGE: Iowa, 1990
PRO EXPERIENCE: Currently in first NBA season
DRAFTED BY: Golden State, 1990 second round (#28)

COLLEGE CAREER: Named to the All-Big Ten Third Team by AP and UPI after averaging a career-high 14.9 ppg (second on the team) and 10.0 rpg (led the team) as a senior for the University of Iowa Hawkeyes. . . . Set an Iowa single-season record and finished 12th in the NCAA (second only to Felton Spencer, .681, among centers) by making .623 of his field goal attempts...Also led the team with 31 blocked shots...Was the only Hawkeye to start all 28 games during 1989-90 season...Established career highs of 24 points and 17 rebounds vs. Ohio on 12/1/89. Matched his top scoring mark vs. Northwestern on 2/3/90 and vs. Wisconsin on 2/10/90...Equalled his board-clearing best in a 69-67 victory vs. Illinois on 1/29/90, when he also made a game-winning layup in the final seconds and at Northwestern on 2/22/90...Converted a pair of game-winning free throws vs. Michigan with six seconds remaining, then caused Rumeal Robinson to miss a final shot in a 78-76 overtime victory vs. the defending national champions on 1/20/90...Led the team in scoring 11 times, including seven of the Hawkeyes' last 11 games, scored in double figures 22 times, paced the club in rebounding on 23 occasions, grabbed 10 or more boards in 13 contests and registered a total of 12 double-doubles as a senior...Appeared in all 33 of his team's games as a junior, with 30 starts, and averaged 4.2 ppg and 5.3 rpg...Set a school record by blocking six shots vs. Central Florida on 12/14/88...Hit five of eight shots from the field for 10 points (a career high at the time) and added 10 rebounds against J.R. Reid and North Carolina in a 98-97 triumph on 1/7/89...Named Iowa's Most Improved Player after playing in 26 games and averaging 1.3 ppg and 1.5 rpg during his sophomore season, which ended with a loss to Tom Tolbert and Arizona in the 1988 NCAA West Regional Semifinals...Saw action in just 15 games in his freshman year and averaged 1.0 ppg and 1.1 rpg as the 30-5 Hawkeyes made it to the 1987 West Regional Final vs. UNLV...Tournament trail included a 84-82 second round win over sophomore guard Tim Hardaway and his UTEP Miners...Red-shirted during the 1985-86 season.

HIGH SCHOOL: Averaged 28.0 ppg, 18.0 rpg and 6.0 bpg and earned all-state honors as a 7'0" senior...Also ran relays and threw the javelin for the track team and played first base on the school's baseball team.

MISCELLANEOUS: Full name is Leslie Burnell Jepsen...Signed a four-year contract on 7/26/90...Averaged 14.0 ppg and 10.2 rpg in nine games for the Warriors during the 1990 Southern California Summer Pro League in Los Angeles...Enrolled at Iowa in 1985 with a recruiting class that also included B.J. Armstrong (of the Chicago Bulls), Roy Marble (of the Atlanta Hawks), Ed Horton (of the Washington Bullets) and Kevin Gamble (of the Boston Celtics)...He is the 20th Hawkeye to be drafted by an NBA team since 1980, but just the second center or power forward (Kevin Kunnert, #12 pick by Chicago in 1973, is the first) to be selected with one of the top 30 picks since Don Nelson, a two-time All-America selection and the fifth-leading scorer in Hawkeyes history, was chosen by the Chicago Zephyrs with the 19th pick in 1962...A few similarities: Nelson donned uniform number 15 at Iowa while Jepsen wore 51 and both answer to the nickname "Big Boy."...Received his bachelor's degree in management science in December 1989 and is working towards a master's degree in either finance or management information systems...Hometown of Bowbells is a farm community of less than 800 people in northwest North Dakota, located 15 miles south of the Canadian border and 100 miles east of the Montana state line...Fellow Bowbellians often made the 18-hour drive to Iowa City to see him play in college...Parents' names are Lyle and Mavis...Started playing basketball in the third grade...His idols have included Wilt Chamberlain, Rick Barry and Julius Erving...Wears size 18 basketball shoes...Enjoys working with computers, reading, watching television and listening to music.

"He was born to be a center and is not going to be anything but a center. We're really looking forward to working with him. He has a great work ethic. Of course, he went to the right school (Iowa, Nelson's alma mater), so he's a very intelligent young man."

DON NELSON, Warriors Head Coach

"He has a lot of room to continue to improve and develop. He has good athletic skills. He's nowhere near as good as he's going to be."

TOM DAVIS, University of Iowa Head Basketball Coach

"I haven't reached my potential. If I keep working hard, I have a chance for success. Someday I will be ready, I guarantee that. I came from a high school graduating class of 11 and then went to the University of Iowa, with 30,000 people there. I've always been an underdog and probably always will be."

BIRTHDATE: October 1, 1958
BIRTHPLACE: Dallas, Texas
HIGH SCHOOL: Wilson (Dallas, TX)
COLLEGE: Arizona State, 1981
PRO EXPERIENCE: Currently in 10th NBA season
DRAFTED BY: Milwaukee, 1981 first round (#16)
HOW ACQUIRED: From Seattle for the Sonics' 1990 first round draft pick on 8/7/89. Seattle's draft choice had been obtained on 6/27/89 for a 1989 first round draft pick (#16).

1989-90 SEASON: Finished in 11th place among active NBA players with 1,244 career blocked shots...Had played in 167 consecutive regular season games (second-longest iron man streak in the NBA among centers, trailing only Mark Eaton of Utah), before suffering a ruptured right Achilles' tendon in the third game of the season, vs. the L.A. Clippers on 11/7...Underwent successful corrective surgery the following day and spent the next three months in a cast (six weeks in a long leg cast and six weeks in a short leg walking cast)...Followed a rehabilitation program designed by Warriors team physician Michael Krinsky and athletic trainer Tom Abdenour...Returned to his home in Seattle, where he worked with a physical therapist three times a week...Also worked out on his own and frequently returned to the Bay Area for follow-up examinations...Missed the team's first five pre-season games with a strained right calf.

PRO CAREER: One of only three players in recorded NBA history (since 1973-74) to register 100 or more blocked shots in his first eight seasons, along with Wayne Rollins and Mark Eaton...Also among nine players with eight straight 100-block seasons in a career...Has led his team in shot-blocking in each of his eight full seasons...Ranks as Milwaukee's all-time shot-blocking leader (744 blocks) and is second only to Jack Sikma (705 blocks) on Seattle's all-time charts with 500 blocks...Was one of only three NBA centers (along with Kareem Abdul-Jabbar and Robert Parish) with eight consecutive years of playoff experience from 1982-89...Was one of 13 NBA players who did not miss a single game during the 1987-88 and 1988-89 seasons and had missed only 18 career games prior to last season...Has made at least .498 of his field goal attempts in each of his 13 seasons of college and professional basketball...Averaged 8.1 ppg, 6.9 rpg and 22.1 mpg in his first five pro seasons under Don Nelson at Milwaukee...Spent his first three years primarily as a back-up to Bob Lanier...Started 80 times during the 1984-85 campaign and scored a career-high 30 points vs. New York on 11/30/84...Was traded from Milwaukee along with the Bucks' first round draft picks in 1987 and '89 to Seattle in exchange for Sikma and the Sonics' second round draft picks in '87 and '89 on 7/1/86...Posted his best overall season in 1986-87, averaging career highs of 11.6 ppg, 9.4 rpg, 2.4 bpg and 30.5 mpg...Registered top career rebounding performances by pulling down 21 boards in victories vs. Phoenix on 1/31/87 and vs. Cleveland on 3/2/87...Missed the final seven games of the regular season and Seattle's first five playoff contests with a fractured fifth metatarsal in his right foot...Returned to the Sonics' starting lineup in game four of their Western Conference Semifinal series against Akeem Olajuwon, Ralph Sampson and Houston and grabbed a playoff career-high 17 rebounds on 5/9/87...Seattle won the game, 117-102, and went on to take the series from the defending conference champions in six games...Ensuing series versus the Lakers marked the fourth time in five years that he had played in a conference championship...Went on to lead Seattle in rebounding (7.6 rpg) for a second straight season and connected on .667 of his field goal attempts over the final 15 games of the 1987-88 campaign...Equalled his career high and the Sonics record which he set in 1986-87 with 180 blocks in his final season with Seattle (1988-89)...Averaged 2.2 bpg to finish ninth in the NBA and among the league's top 10 shot-blockers for the fourth time in his career...Recorded a career-high nine blocks, including five in the first period, vs. Miami on 12/29/88.

COLLEGE: Led San Jacinto Junior College of Pasadena, Texas to the semi-finals of the NJCAA Championships and was named to the Junior College All-America Team in 1977...Transferred to Arizona State in 1978...Named to the All-Pac 10 First Team in 1981 after earning honorable mention the year before...Finished his three years at ASU ranking first in blocks (148), sixth in rebounding average (8.2) and seventh in total rebounds (676) and field goal percentage (.523).

"I figured Alton would give us some consistency at the center position, anchor that position, play 30 minutes a game. He can block some shots, rebound, run, score some...not outstanding in any area, but a good, all-around center. That's what we needed."
DON NELSON, Warriors Head Coach
Before Lister's Achilles' tendon injury

"I still feel I have some good years left. I said if I'm not able to play, I want to have given all that I had. Then I can live with myself and say at least I gave it my best shot."
ALTON LISTER on recovering from Achilles' tendon injury

"We all experience setbacks in our careers. If you can learn from it, you can benefit from it. Something like this makes you come to reality that I'm not indestructible. I can't take that for granted anymore."

SARUNAS MARCIULIONIS

POSITION: Guard
HEIGHT: 6'5"
WEIGHT: 200
BIRTHDATE: June 13, 1964
BIRTHPLACE: Kaunas, Lithuania, U.S.S.R.
COLLEGE: Lithuania, 1986
PRO EXPERIENCE: Currently in second NBA season
HOW ACQUIRED: Signed as a non-draft rookie on 6/23/89

1989-90 SEASON: Averaged 12.1 ppg (fifth on the team—sixth out of 82 NBA rookies, top five rookies each started at least 30 games), 2.9 rebounds and 22.6 mpg in his first NBA season...Averaged one free throw attempt for every 4.21 minutes he played...Karl Malone (3.42 Min/ FTA), David Robinson (3.59 Min/ FTA) and Charles Barkley (4.15 Min/FTA) were the only players who visited the free throw line more frequently (12.0 mpg minimum)...Served as the team's sixth man 14 times and averaged 17.0 ppg (.582 FG), 4.2 rpg and 29.4 mpg in his last five outings as the team's first substitute...The Lithuanian guard started two games for an injured Mitch Richmond in early January and averaged 28.0 ppg (19-30 FG, 16-18 FT) and 5.5 rpg...Totaled 10+ points 46 times, 20+ points nine times and 30+ points once (33 vs. Orlando, 1/13)...Led the team in scoring six times and rebounding three times.

1988 OLYMPICS: Was the leading scorer for the Soviet Union's 1988 Olympic Gold Medal-winning team in Seoul, South Korea...Was the Olympiad's fifth-best scorer, with a 18.1 ppg average over eight games...Scored a team-high 19 points and was 3-3 from three-point range in the Soviet Union's 82-76 win over the United States on 9/28/88.

BACKGROUND: First met Warriors assistant coach Donn Nelson, Don Nelson's son, in the summer of 1985...Nelson was a member of a touring Athletes in Action (AIA) team which faced Marciulionis in Kaunas, Lithuania. A friendship developed as the two met again in the U.S. in 1986 for a series of games involving AIA and the Soviet National Team...Based on Nelson's scouting reports, the Warriors selected Marciulionis in the sixth round (#127 overall) of the 1987 NBA Draft...League officials later disallowed the pick, as Marciulionis was found to have been eight days too old to have been eligible for the draft...He was, therefore, considered a non-draft rookie...Visited Milwaukee with the Soviet National Team for the 1987 McDonald's Open, and was impressed by a spontaneous standing ovation given to Don Nelson, who had resigned his post as head coach of the Bucks four months earlier...The paths of the younger Nelson and Marciulionis continued to cross occasionally over the next two years until Soviet sports authorities gave the Lithuanian star permission to sign with the NBA team of his choice in June of 1989...Became the first player from the Soviet Union to join the NBA when he signed a three-year contract with the Warriors on 6/23/89.

MISCELLANEOUS: Full name is Raimondas Sarunas Marciulionis (pronounced Ray-MOON-dus Shaw-ROON-iss Marsh-a-LOAN-iss), believed to be the longest player name in NBA history...Teammates call him Rooney...Because he was the first player from the Soviet Union to join the NBA, the jersey and game ball from his first NBA regular season game (at Phoenix, 11/3/89) were placed on display at the Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Massachusetts...Was born and raised in the Baltic Republic of Lithuania...Does not discuss political issues with the media...Wife Ingrid is a former member of the Soviet Women's Junior National Basketball Team...They have a three-year-old daughter named Krista...Family in Kaunas includes his father Juozas, a civil engineer, mother Laimute, a retired geography teacher, and a sister named Zita...His parents and in-laws visited the Bay Area for a month last season...Holds a degree in journalism from Vilnius State University...Fulfilled a lifelong dream by purchasing a black Mercedes Benz automobile shortly after moving to the Bay Area...Enjoys watching television, especially CNN, playing tennis (he's ambidextrous and has been known to play with a racket in both hands), fishing, listening to music and eating Chinese food...Wears size 13-½ shoes.

''Sarunas, when you think in terms of him being a rookie, had some growing pains, but you could see what he's all about and what kind of player he could be. He was really a nice pick-up that cost us nothing in terms of draft picks and makes our future look brighter.''

DON NELSON, Warriors Head Coach

''He truly is a terrific player. He doesn't even shoot the outside shot, they're playing him for the drive and he still drives. That's how good he is. If he ever gets a total game going, I don't know what they'll do with the guy.''

DON NELSON, Warriors Head Coach

''He's a blue-collar kind of guy, no frills. The fans love his work ethic and hustle.''

DONN NELSON, Warriors Assistant Coach

''The NBA is much rougher, especially in the paint. Everybody is shoving and pushing. It's not like that in Europe. I have to learn to put my hand on my man all the time, otherwise I lose my man. We have so many different defenses to learn. I'm trying.''

PRO EXPERIENCE: Currently in sixth NBA season
DRAFTED BY: Golden State, 1985 first round (#7)

1989-90 SEASON: Named to the All-NBA Third Team by a national media panel...Was the lone all-league selection (out of 15) to come from a non-playoff team...Became the first player to lead the Warriors in scoring (25.1 ppg, seventh in the NBA) and rebounding (5.9 rpg) since Nate Thurmond in 1964-65...Made .536 of his shots from the field (11th in the NBA) and .889 of his free throw attempts (eighth in the NBA)...No player in NBA history has posted higher scoring and shooting statistics in the same season...Had spent most of the season on a pace to become the first player in 20 years (first since Lou Hudson of the 1969-70 Atlanta Hawks) to finish a season in the top 10 in scoring, plus field goal and free throw shooting...The team co-captain (along with Mitch Richmond) completed the season as the 11th-leading scorer in team history with 7,355 points...Established new team records for three-point field goals made (87) and attempted (234), which resulted in a team-high .372 mark...Was one of 10 NBA players (all 1990 All-Stars) who made 500 free throws...Improved his career free throw percentage to .879, the fifth-best in NBA history behind Rick Barry, Calvin Murphy, Bill Sharman and Larry Bird...Made 50 consecutive free throws from 12/15-12/29...Was named NBA Player of the Week on 12/18 after averaging 27.3 ppg and 10.8 rpg while leading the Warriors to four straight wins during the previous week...Grabbed a career-high 18 rebounds including 12 in the second period and added 33 points vs. Denver on 1/8...Became the first Warrior since Barry (1973-78) to appear in back-to-back All-Star Games...Saw his streaks of 190 consecutive regular season games played (eighth-longest in team history) and 185 consecutive starts (third-longest in the NBA at the time, behind Otis Thorpe and Mark Eaton) come to an end on 3/20 as he was forced to miss the first of four straight games with a viral syndrome which was affecting his lungs...Established career highs for free throws made (17) and attempted (19) in his first game back, vs. Utah on 3/29...Scored in double figures in every game he played (one of only six NBA players to do so) and finished the season with a streak of 93 consecutive double-digit scoring performances, third-longest in the NBA behind Michael Jordan (337 games) and Patrick Ewing (127 games)...Totaled 20+ points 61 times, 30+ points 23 times, 10+ rebounds seven times and 10 assists once...Led the club in scoring 40 times and rebounding 22 times and had eight double-doubles.

PRO CAREER: Entered the NBA with a flood of publicity after being named the 1985 College Player of the Year by many organizations...Missed training camp and the first six games of the 1985-86 season before agreeing to a four-year contract on 11/6/85...Made a storybook debut just hours after signing by hitting the game-winning basket in the final minute of a 105-101 decision vs. Seattle...Made .896 of his free throws as a rookie, the second best mark for a first-year player in NBA history, trailing only Ernie DiGregorio's .902 mark in 1973-74...Was hampered by a sore left heel which forced him to miss the final 20 games of his first season...Started in all 82 games during his second pro campaign...Finished fourth on the club in scoring (15.1 ppg), second in assists (3.2) and steals (1.2) and third in field goal percentage (.514)...Missed 22 games (12/12 - 1/29) during the 1987-88 season as he voluntarily entered an alcohol rehabilitation program...Averaged 20.6 ppg over the final 44 games of the season after returning to the team...Established himself as one of the game's top all-around players and was named to the All-NBA Second Team after averaging 26.5 ppg (fifth in the NBA), 5.9 rpg and 5.1 apg during the 1988-89 season...Teamed with Mitch Richmond to form the highest scoring duo in the league with a combined average of 48.6 ppg...The Mullin/Richmond duo was the youngest to lead the league in scoring since 1971-72 (Kareem Abdul-Jabbar and Bob Dandridge of Milwaukee)...Became the third player in team history to total 2,000 points, 400 rebounds and 400 assists in a season, joining Wilt Chamberlain and Rick Barry and the fourth player in the franchise's 2,000-point club, which also includes Purvis Short...Became the first Warrior ever to be named NBA Player of the Month in January 1989...Started the club on an eight-game winning streak (longest since 1975) by recording his first career triple-double with 39 points, 11 rebounds and 11 assists vs. Phoenix on 1/9/89...Earned NBA Player of the Week honors on 1/23/89...Scored a career-high 47 points in an overtime loss at the Clippers on 1/23/89.

"You can't describe him. You think his move is so slow, but it's not. He scores 30 points a night and you wonder, 'I'm playing great defense but he's still scoring.'"
DENNIS RODMAN, Detroit Pistons
1990 NBA Defensive Player of the Year
Mullin averaged 32.0 ppg in two games against the World Champions last season.

"(He is) the epitome of a professional right now. He definitely is not the player he was three or four years ago. He's one of the most valuable players in the game for his team."
PAT RILEY, NBC Sports

"Any time you get a player that's as talented as he is and understands the game as well as he does...I think he's very similar to perhaps Larry Bird or Earvin Johnson in what he means to a team."
KEVIN JOHNSON, Phoenix Suns

COLLEGE: One of the most honored college basketball players in history...Was selected to every All-American Team as a senior and virtually every one as a junior...Honored as the winner of the prestigious John Wooden Award as the nation's top college player in 1985...Was also named as Player of the Year by UPI and the U.S. Basketball Writers' Association...Named as Big East Conference Co-Player of the Year with Patrick Ewing...Led the Redmen to the NCAA Final Four in 1985 and was the tourney's leading scorer...Was named MVP of the 1985 NCAA West Regional, the ECAC Holiday Festival and for all four years was the MVP of the Lapchick Tournament...Finished his career as the all-time leading scorer in Big East history and at St. John's...Also is the school's all-time career leader in games (125), steals (211) and free throw percentage (.848)...Scored in double figures in his final 100 straight games and in 120 of 125 overall...Member of the 1984 Olympic Gold Medal-winning United States basketball team.

BIRTHPLACE: Minneapolis, Minnesota
HIGH SCHOOL: St. Louis Park, MN
COLLEGE: Minnesota, 1984
PRO EXPERIENCE: Currently in seventh NBA season
DRAFTED BY: Houston, 1984 third round (#51)
HOW ACQUIRED: From Sacramento for Ralph Sampson on 9/27/89

1989-90 SEASON: Averaged 4.0 ppg, 3.7 rpg and 13.8 mpg in 43 games (fewest in his six-year NBA career)...Began the season on the injured list after undergoing an operation on his right knee on 9/18...Saw his first action on 12/12 in Sacramento, where the team started a six-game winning streak...Appeared in three games before returning to the injured list with an inflamed right knee on 12/20 and missed 20 more games...Rejoined the team for the duration of the season on 1/31 vs. Portland and saw action in 40 of the last 41 games of the 1989-90 campaign (did not play on a coach's decision in the season finale vs. Seattle on 4/22)...The Warriors were 10-9 in games when he started at center...Scored a season-high 14 points at Houston on 3/24...Totaled 10+ points four times and 10+ rebounds once (11, at Charlotte on 4/8)...Led the team in rebounding three times.

PRO CAREER: Entered the professional ranks as Houston's third round draft pick in 1984...Spent his first four pro seasons primarily as a backup to the Rockets' "Twin Towers," Ralph Sampson and Akeem Olajuwon...Saw limited action as a rookie and missed 18 of the last 21 games of the 1984-85 season with a sprained ankle...Started 126 games over the course of his career in Houston and was the only Rocket to play in every game during both the 1985-86 and 1986-87 seasons...Totaled a career-high 16 rebounds at Utah on 2/25/86...With his team trailing Boston three games to one in the 1986 NBA Finals, he replaced Sampson, who had been ejected for fighting with the Celtics' Jerry Sichting, early in the second quarter and contributed six points and 12 rebounds in 33 minutes of play in what he refers to as the "most memorable" game of his NBA career, as the Rockets came from behind to build a 25-point lead and finally won, 111-96...Scored a career-high 28 points at Sacramento on 3/4/87 and posted career-high averages of 11.3 ppg and 6.8 rpg during the 1986-87 campaign...Missed the first 13 games of the 1987-88 season as he recovered from a 10/23/87 operation to remove bone spurs from his left ankle...Was activated on 12/1/87 and moved into the starting lineup on 12/16/87 after a trade sent Sampson and Steve Harris to the Warriors in exchange for Joe Barry Carroll and Eric Floyd four days earlier...Started 50 straight contests before coming off the bench for the final 13 games of the season...Was acquired by Sacramento along with Rodney McCray from Houston in exchange for Otis Thorpe on 10/11/88...Missed the first eight games of the season as he recovered from off-season surgery on his right knee...Was the Kings starting center 40 times, including a stretch of 23 straight games where he averaged 10.5 ppg, 7.4 rpg and 29.4 mpg.

COLLEGE: Earned four varsity letters at Minnesota as he helped lead the Golden Gophers to a 75-41 record...Played with current NBA players Randy Breuer and Trent Tucker...Averaged 11.2 ppg and 6.9 rpg and led the Big Ten with .639 field goal mark as a senior...Had a .575 career field goal mark...Team won the conference championship and earned an NCAA Tournament berth during his sophomore season and went to the NIT during his freshman and junior years...Toured Australia in 1983 with an NIT All-Star Team...College high-point game was 26, vs. Detroit.

MISCELLANEOUS: Full name is James Richard Petersen...Nickname is Pete...Signed a six-year contract on 2/7/89...Serves as the Warriors team representative for the NBA Players Association...Says he would have become a corporate salesman if he had not become a pro basketball player...Majored in business in college...Brother David was a freshman on the Texas A & M basketball team last season...Parents live in Minneapolis...Actively involved in several charities, including the Boys Club, Multiple Sclerosis and the Sunshine Kids (cancer center) of Houston...Enjoys traveling, playing tennis and golf, reading and watching movies and television...Wears size 15 basketball shoes.

"Last season was kind of a wasted year really for Pete. He just struggled all year. He tells me he's got more, there's a lot more there and we're going to see it this season and I believe him."
DON NELSON, Warriors Head Coach

"I never sat on the sidelines in Houston. I was never hurt. When you are hurt, your perspective changes. Playing in the NBA is a privilege that you shouldn't take for granted."
JIM PETERSEN on recovering from his knee injury

"I didn't feel good all season long. I am still trying to find my niche with this team. I still haven't been able to show what I can do. When you're used to a low-post, inside type of offense and...this is a perimeter team, a lot of motion."
JIM PETERSEN on his style of play

COLLEGE: Kansas, 1990
PRO EXPERIENCE: Currently in first NBA season
DRAFTED BY: Golden State, 1990 second round (#34)

COLLEGE CAREER: Finished as the Jayhawks' fifth-leading scorer of all-time with 1,692 points (12.2 ppg) and among the school's top three in career assists (499, third), steals (190, third), minutes played (3,980, second) and games started (129, second)...Set a Kansas record with 154 made three-pointers in his career... Appeared in 139 out of 140 games in his four-year career...Named to the 1990 All-Big Eight First Team by AP and UPI after leading Kansas in scoring (14.5 ppg), assists (5.1 apg), steals (1.7 spg) and free throw percentage (.815) as a senior...Helped lead Kansas to 19 straight wins at the beginning of the season, including a 14-point victory over the eventual national champion University of Nevada – Las Vegas...KU was ranked among the top two teams in the nation in polls released by AP, UPI and CNN/USA Today for 13 consecutive weeks leading up to the NCCA Tournament...The Jayhawks finished fifth in the final wire service polls and 14th in the CNN/USA Today survey...Awarded All-Big Eight Defensive Team honors for a second straight year in 1990...Also selected to the USBWA All-District Five Team, Dick Vitale's "All-Ditka Team," the Academic All-Big Eight Team (for a third straight year) and the pre-season NIT All-Tournament Team as a senior...Was one of five finalists for the 1990 Pete Maravich Award, given annually to the college senior who best exemplifies leadership, athletic ability and sportsmanship...Scored 11 points in the NABC All-Star Game during the 1990 NCAA Final Four weekend in Denver...Named to the 1988-89 All-Big Eight Second Team by AP after averaging 14.5 ppg and 4.4 apg as a junior...Scored a career-high 26 points in a nationally-televised head-to-head meeting with Mark Macon and Temple on 12/10/88...Started on KU's 1988 National Championship team and posted averages of 10.6 ppg and 3.1 apg as a sophomore...Faced Mitch Richmond and Kansas State in the Midwest Regional Final that year...Averaged 9.6 ppg and 2.0 apg and was named to the 1986-87 Big Eight and Al McGuire All-Freshman Teams.

HIGH SCHOOL: Named Oklahoma Player of the Year for a second straight year in 1986 after averaging 22.3 ppg as a senior at Edison High in Tulsa, Oklahoma...Led his team to the state championship game his last two seasons...Scored 18 points and earned MVP honors as a senior in the McDonald's Derby Classic...Competed in the 1986 U.S. Olympic Festival....Cleared 6-8 in the high jump as a junior...Recruited by several colleges and universities and narrowed his choices to Kansas and Kentucky.

MISCELLANEOUS: Full name is Kevin Lee Pritchard...Averaged 17.6 ppg on .558 field goal and .815 free throw shooting and 5.2 apg in nine games for the Warriors during the 1990 Southern California Summer Pro League in Los Angeles...Parents Steve and Julia live in Nashville, Tennessee...Father manages and promotes numerous entertainment acts, including many of the biggest names in the country music industry...Grew up in Noblesville, Indiana and lived there until 1981 when his family moved to Independence, Kansas...Lived there for two years until moving to Tulsa, Oklahoma...Says he would have gone into coaching had he not become a professional basketball player...Teammates at Kansas included Danny Manning (of the Los Angeles Clippers), Ricky Calloway, Tyrone Hill's high school teammate, and Scooter Barry, son of former Warriors All-Star Rick Barry...Credits former KU coach Larry Brown (now with San Antonio), who moved him to point guard in his sophomore season, for helping improve his game...Majored in communications and has considered attending law school...Relaxes by playing golf and tennis and going to movies...Wears size 10½ shoes.

"I hate to compare players, but I think Kevin has the ability, if he matures like I hope he will, to have a style similar to Jeff Hornacek's. We think he's going to be an excellent shooter and be able to make the three. He has the ability to know how to play basketball. He makes the right plays. He's a good, solid defender. Now, Hornacek has developed and really come on, but if Kevin can be on the same scale three years from today, we'll all be very, very elated."

DON NELSON, Warriors Head Coach

"Pritchard probably doesn't get the credit he deserves. Certainly Kansas would not have won the title without his steady and consistent play. He's not a real flashy player, and that is probably the reason you don't hear his name as much as others. He's got a lot of moxie. He's my kind of player."

DRAFTED BY: Golden State, 1988 first round (#5)

1989-90 SEASON: Became the first NBA Rookie of the Year winner since Keith (later known as Jamaal) Wilkes of the 1974-75 Warriors to improve his scoring, plus field goal and free throw shooting in his second NBA season...Averaged 22.1 ppg (second on the team, 20th in the NBA) on .497 field goal (third on the team) and .866 free throw shooting (20th in the NBA), 4.6 rpg (fourth on the team, led all guards) and 2.9 apg (third on the team)...The team co-captain (with Chris Mullin) led the Warriors to an 11-0 record in games when he scored 28 or more points...Averaged 18.7 ppg (.411 FG, .820 FT) through the first nine games of the season before contributing 22.9 ppg (.512 FG, .873 FT) in his next 66 outings, then saw limited playing time once the club was eliminated from contention for a playoff berth...Recorded what he called, "the biggest rebound of my life, followed by the biggest shot of my life," against Charles Barkley at Philadelphia on 2/7 when he scored a basket with three-tenths of second left which gave the Warriors their first win on the Sixers' home court since 1979 and finished with a season-high-tying 32 points...Nationally-televised (TNT) heroics helped end Philadelphia's 12-game winning streak (second longest in the NBA during the 1989-90 campaign)...Totaled 10+ points 74 times, 20+ points 54 times, 30+ points 5 times and 10+ rebounds twice...Led the team in scoring 21 times, paced the team in rebounding nine times and had two double-doubles.

PRO CAREER: Was selected NBA Rookie of the Year and the only unanimous All-Rookie First Team member following a season in which he averaged 22.0 ppg (16th in NBA), 5.9 rpg and 4.2 apg per game...Oscar Robertson (Cincinnati, 1960-61), Sidney Wicks (Portland, 1971-72) and Michael Jordan (Chicago, 1984-85) are the only previous Rookie of the Year winners with higher averages in all three prime statistical categories...Teamed with Chris Mullin to form the highest scoring duo in the NBA, with a combined average of 48.6 ppg...The Mullin/Richmond combo was the youngest to lead the league in scoring since 1971-72 (Kareem Abdul-Jabbar and Bob Dandridge, Milwaukee)...Joined Wilt Chamberlain (NBA record 37.6 ppg in 1959-60) and Rick Barry (25.6 ppg in 1965-66) as the only Warriors rookies to average better than 20 points in a game...Won Rookie of the Month honors three times (December, January and March)...Posted the third-best scoring effort by an NBA rookie in the 1980s vs. Sacramento on 3/4/89 by finishing with 47 points on 17-24 field goal and 13-19 free throw shooting...Only Jordan (49 vs. Detroit, 2/12/85) and Kelly Tripucka (49 vs. Golden State, 3/12/82) scored more points in a rookie season game in the '80s...Tied a franchise record by hitting five (of five) three pointers at Sacramento on 1/21...Team was 19-5 when he hit better than .500 of his field goal attempts.

COLLEGE: Began at Moberly Area Junior College in Moberly, Missouri where he played for two seasons under current Kansas State coach Dana Altman...As a sophomore, he was picked as a First Team JUCO All-American and Region 16 Junior College Player of the Year after averaging 16.0 points and 6.8 rebounds per contest...Moberly was 69-9 over Richmond's two seasons and finished third in the National Junior College Tournament in 1985...As a junior, he transferred to Kansas State and earned Second Team All-Big Eight honors by averaging 18.6 points and 5.7 rebounds...Gained his first international experience when he was selected to the 1987 U.S. World Games Team...Led the silver medal-winning squad in scoring by averaging 16.2 points over eight games...Earned numerous honors as a senior, including a consensus Second Team All-American selection, First Team All-Big Eight, Big Eight All-Tournament Team and MVP of the Sun Met Classic in Fresno, California...Led K-State to the NCAA Tournament again and reached the Midwest Regional Finals before bowing to the eventual national champion Kansas Jayhawks...Paced the team in scoring, with a single season school record of 768 points and finished as the most prolific two-year scorer in school history with 1,327 points...Led the Wildcats to a 72-61 victory at Kansas on 1/30/88, ending the Jayhawks' 55-game home winning streak...Career high of 41 points came at Oklahoma on 2/13/88.

''Mitch had a sensational second year. You have yet to see the greatness in Mitch. Wait until you see him two or three years from now.''
DON NELSON, Warriors Head Coach

''Richmond is the best '2' guard in the league. He's the closest thing to watching myself in the mirror.''
MICHAEL JORDAN, Chicago Bulls

''The thing I like about Mitch is that he takes everyday as a new day. You don't hear people say that he has potential. He fulfills it. Mitch wants to be the best he can be, and if he doesn't play well today, he'll play well tomorrow. I am just glad he's on our team.''
CHRIS MULLIN, Warriors

''Mitch helps my game so much. We can run isolations. Every time he gets the ball, they have to send guys at him. I just have to read when someone goes to him, then cut. We're getting better at it all the time.''
CHRIS MULLIN, Warriors

MISCELLANEOUS: Full name is Mitchell James Richmond...Teammates have nicknamed him Rock, as in rock solid...Signed a five-year contract on 10/10/88...Was a member of the 1988 U.S. Olympic Team...Credits his mother, Ernell O'Neal, for motivating him to be his best...Expressed his gratitude by having a new home built for her in Fort Lauderdale...Recently bought his own new home in the "Warriors Village" section of Alameda...Majored in social sciences at Kansas State...Held his first local basketball camp for boys and girls, ages 8-18, at Capachino High School in San Bruno this past summer...Also took time in August to pose as a mummy for a photo shoot with fellow Olympian/NBA Rookie of the Year Award winner David Robinson for a Halloween layout in Sports Illustrated For Kids...Favorite charities benefit the homeless...Says if he was not a pro basketball player, he would own and operate his own business...Enjoys listening to music and bowling...Favorite TV show is "The Cosby Show"...Wears Adidas basketball shoes, size 13.

"Mike has experience and size. He has a couple of championship rings from his two seasons with the Lakers. He works very hard and is strong."
DON NELSON, Warriors Head Coach

"Mike has the type of game that often times has found a place in Nellie's system to flourish. He does a couple of things really well and Nellie will find a way to use those skills while Mike develops his other skills."
SAM SCHULER, Warriors Director of Player Personnel

"We're looking for Mike to step up and challenge for time at the center spot this year. I feel all he needs is some game experience and confidence. His work habits and skills are NBA quality."
DON NELSON, Warriors Head Coach

PRO CAREER: Started 44 games as a rookie with Houston in 1982-83...Saw his playing time drop from 23.4 mpg as a rookie to 9.1 mpg in his second season...Was released by Houston on 10/23/84...Signed with Detroit on 11/7/84 and totaled two points and five minutes in two games before being waived on 11/20/84...Moved across town to join the Detroit Spirits of the CBA where he averaged 19.5 points in 40 games before signing with the Warriors...Appeared in all 19 of the team's remaining games in 1984-85 and started the final three contests...Played in all 82 games in each of the following two seasons and was named CBA in the NBA Player of the Year for 1985-86...Posted his career high of 12 rebounds vs. the Clippers on 1/16/87...Was hampered by a left hamstring injury throughout the 1987-88 season...Had appeared in 183 straight games since first joining the Warriors, before missing the first six games of the season...Missed a total of 35 outings, including the final 16 games of the season....Posted what were, at the time, career highs for points (15.2 ppg, third on the team) and rebounds during the 1988-89 season...Did not play on a coach's decision in 16 contests, including 13 straight from 12/3/88–1/5/89...Averaged 17.5 ppg on .485 field goal shooting in 41 games as a starter...The Warriors were 16-6 when he made at least .500 of his floor shots.

COLLEGE: Finished his career at Baylor as at that time the all-time scoring leader in Southwest Conference history with 2,189 points...Was a three-time All-SWC First Team selection and was named Second Team All-American as a senior...Led the Bears in both scoring and rebounding in each of his last three seasons...Led the conference in scoring as a sophmore, then finished third as a junior and second as a senior.

MISCELLANEOUS: Full name is Terry Michael Teagle...Extended contract through the 1990-91 season in May 1989...Hometown of Broaddus, Texas is on the northern edge of the Sam Rayburn Reservoir, approximately 60 miles north of Beaumont...The farm community of about 200 people may be the smallest hometown of any current NBA player...Some of the locals have put up satellite TV dishes, primarily to pick up Warriors games...Makes his Bay Area home in Pleasanton with wife Debra and daughter Mikala...Spends his summers in suburban Houston, where he enjoys being with his family and swimming...Number one professional goal is to win a world championship...Wears size 12-½ shoes.

"Terry had his best year as a pro last season."
DON NELSON, Warriors Head Coach

"Terry takes advantage of mismatches better than anyone. In our system, it's an advantage for a small guy to play a big man. I ask them to do the dirty work at one end, and I give them the freedom, the offensive opportunities, at the other."
DON NELSON, Warriors Head Coach

"Terry has had a great career. People don't understand how hard the guy works. He practices his butt off, and I really respect him for that."
CHRIS MULLIN, Warriors

"I make offense my defense. I can run the court quicker than my man, and I can run away from them and get my shot. I keep moving and wear down the bigger guys' legs."
TERRY TEAGLE on his style of play

"I prefer coming off the bench. It's hard for some people to do that, but I've always been one to come off the bench and score. It's not that I mind starting, especially if it is at my natural position, but when you come in and play two or three different positions, from off guard to small forward to power forward and even maybe some center — that's what I like."
TERRY TEAGLE on coming off the bench

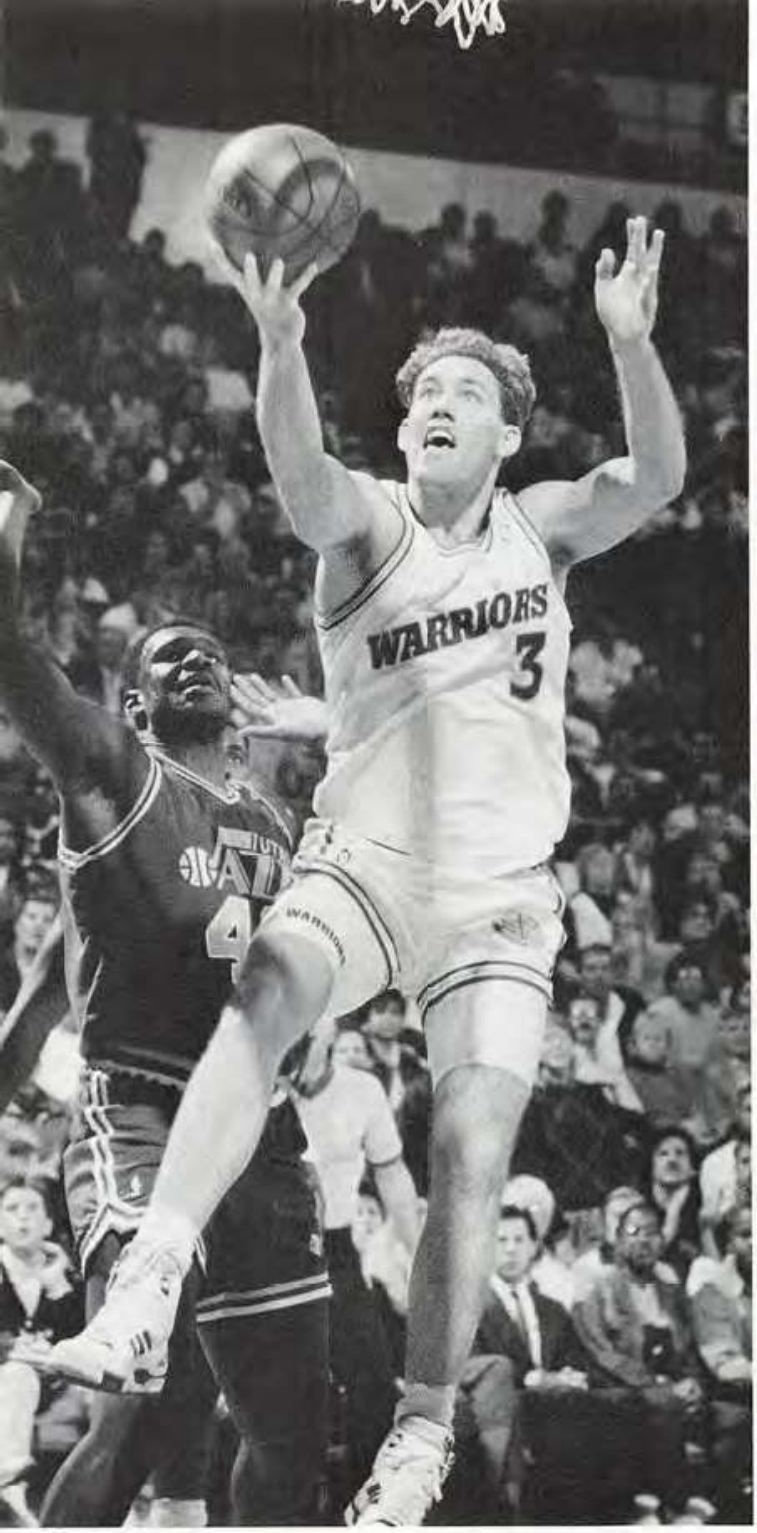
BIRTHDATE: October 16, 1965
BIRTHPLACE: Long Beach, California
HIGH SCHOOL: Lakewood (Lakewood, CA)
COLLEGE: Arizona, 1988
PRO EXPERIENCE: Currently in third NBA season
DRAFTED BY: Charlotte, 1988 second round (#34)
HOW ACQUIRED: Signed as a free agent on 11/9/89

1989-90 SEASON: Provided one of the NBA's best comeback stories as he went from being the final cut in training camp to taking an injured Alton Lister's spot on the roster and emerged as the team's second-leading rebounder (5.2 rpg), seventh-best scorer (8.8 ppg) and one of the Bay Area's most colorful sports personalities...Sportswriters quickly dubbed him "The Bobcat," because of his hairstyle...The Warriors were 6-3 when he scored 16 or more points... Scored a career-high 27 points (10-14 FG, 7-8 FT) vs. David Robinson and San Antonio in a 144-135 Warriors overtime victory on 2/28...Snared his career high of 15 rebounds at Sacramento on 12/12 and vs. Dallas on 4/12...Totaled 10+ points 27 times, 20+ points three times and 10+ rebounds seven times...Led the team in scoring once (20 points at Utah on 12/26), paced the team in rebounding 13 times and had five double-doubles.

PRO CAREER: Played in 14 games in his rookie season for the expansion Charlotte Hornets and posted averages of 2.9 ppg, 1.5 rpg and 8.4 mpg before being placed on waivers on 12/30/88...Spent the remainder of the 1988-89 season playing for Caja Canarias in the Canary Islands and had planned on returning overseas for the 1989-90 season until the Warriors offered him a one-year contract on 11/9/89.

COLLEGE: Began at the University of California at Irvine in 1983 and was red-shirted after suffering a shoulder injury four games into the season...Saw action in just six games during the 1984-85 campaign and averaged 2.7 ppg and 2.0 rpg...Transferred to Cerritos College in Norwalk, California and averaged 16.2 ppg and 7.8 rpg in 1985-86...Settled in at the University of Arizona, where he finished his career as the 23rd best scorer in school history with 934 points, despite playing just two seasons...Averaged 14.1 ppg and 5.8 rpg as a senior and played alongside a team which also included Sean Elliott (of San Antonio), Steve Kerr (of Cleveland) and Jud Buechler (of New Jersey)...The Wildcats made it to the 1988 NCAA Final Four.

MISCELLANEOUS: Full name is Thomas Byron Tolbert...Signed a four-year contract on 8/20/90...Bought a home in the "Warriors Village" section of Alameda this past summer...Parents' names are Tom and Lois...Became engaged to Lorrie White, whom he met while attending Arizona, on Christmas Eve 1989...Favorite charities benefit the homeless...Oakland A's first baseman Mark McGwire is one of his biggest fans...Averaged 31.5 ppg and 11.4 rpg as a high school senior and was considered one of the top 25 prep players in the nation by The Sporting News in 1983...High school classmates called him Fabian...The Warriors resident optimist/humorist claims he would have become a horse jockey if he had not made it in the NBA...Says if he could be anyone for a day, he would like to be David Letterman...Hobbies include golf and juggling...Guns N' Roses and Skid Row provide his favorite music...Regularly tunes in "The Simpsons" and "Married With Children"...Wears Adidas shoes, size 15.



''One day a new recruit was in town and we were all minding our best manners because Coach (Lute) Olson commanded respect. He was revered in Tuscon. We had a team picnic and the coach really wanted to impress this new guy. After several hours of special treatment, the coach pulled the guy over and began to close the deal. He had his arm around this kid and was describing the beauty of the day, the beauty of Arizona. It was 80 degrees with no clouds in the sky. I guess it was too much for Tom. As we all watched, Tom casually strolled over, stood by the coach and the kid, gesturing toward the sky and said, 'No coach, I see some clouds over there, another one over there...and there's one way out there.''

STEVE KERR, Cleveland Cavaliers
Tolbert's teammate at Arizona

''I remember one night when he decided to eat an entire package of pop rocks in one swallow. We watched while his head foamed and fizzed and rocked back and forth. It was great.''

JERRY FRIEDMAN, Friend of
''The Bobcat''

''Can you believe it? Eight years old and on a grapefruit and Total diet. No way. I quit.''

TOM TOLBERT reflecting on the time when his Pop Warner league football coach told him he was overweight

1989-90 SEASON REVIEW

GOLDEN STATE WARRIORS 1989-90 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- TOP GUNS:
The Warriors led the NBA in scoring for the first time in 14 years with a 116.3 ppg average. Golden State became the second team in history to lead the NBA in scoring with a rookie (Tim Hardaway) as its leading playmaker, joining the 1973-74 Buffalo Braves and Rookie of the Year Ernie DiGregorio.

- RECORD FAN SUPPORT:
Warriors fans established a single season record attendance total of 616,025 during the 1989-90 campaign. The Oakland Coliseum Arena was filled to its 15,025-fan capacity for all 41 regular season games, extending the team's record string of sellouts to 58, dating back to March 3, 1989. The team's previous record for season attendance was 587,820 fans, set in 1988-89. Warriors home attendance has improved every year since 1984-85, when the team averaged 7,331 fans per home game.

- FIFTEEN STRAIGHT WINS AT HOME:
The Warriors went over two months without losing a game at the Oakland Coliseum Arena and established an all-time franchise record streak of 15 straight wins at home from December 13 (vs. Denver) through February 15 (vs. Washington). The team averaged 126.0 ppg on .509 FG and .854 FT shooting while holding the opposition to an average of 115.2 ppg on .460 FG and .739 FT accuracy during their home run. The previous all-time mark of 14 straight homecourt wins was set by the Rick Barry and Nate Thurmond-led 1966-67 Warriors.

- PRESSURE COOKING:
Don Nelson's roundballers posted a 17-10 (.630) record in games which were decided by six points or less. Only the World Champion Detroit Pistons (21-10, .677) and the Michael Jordan-led Chicago Bulls (19-11, .633) won a higher percentage of their games in similar situations. Golden State was 29-3 (.906) when going into the fourth quarter with a lead. Only Cleveland (30-3, .909) and Chicago (49-5, .907) had higher winning percentages when leading after three periods.

- ON THE LINE:
The Warriors made a league-leading 2,313 free throws during the 1989-90 season (28.2 ppg average) and set a franchise record by converting .809 of their free throw attempts. Only six teams in NBA history have made a higher percentage of their free throw tries over the course of a full season.

- THREE WARRIORS EARNED NBA PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONORS:
The Warriors became the fourth team in NBA history to have as many as three different players win NBA Player of the Week honors in the same season. Chris Mullin (week ending December 17), Terry Teagle (week ending January 7) and Tim Hardaway (week ending February 5) all received the league's weekly award.

- THE WARRIORS HONOR ROLL:
Chris Mullin was named to the All-NBA Third Team, in addition to, becoming the first Warrior since Rick Barry (1973-78) to appear in back-to-back All-Star Games. Tim Hardaway was one of two players unanimously selected to the NBA All-Rookie First Team by NBA head coaches, along with David Robinson of San Antonio.

NOTES

Barry left the Warriors to play in the ABA for four seasons.
Head coach Bill Sharman also joined the ABA after the season.
The injury to Nate Thurmond hurt the team down the stretch and in the playoffs.
Finished third in the division, 13 games behind St. Louis.

NOTES

Head coach Alvin Attles won his 400th career game on 12/2/78 at Phoenix, a milestone achieved by only nine other coaches in NBA history at the time.

Robert Parish established a Warriors record with 217 blocked shots.

Parish became the first Warrior since Nate Thurmond in 1969 to record 30 points and 30 rebounds in one game with 30 points and 32 boards vs. New York on 3/30/79.

John Lucas finished second in the NBA in assists with a 9.3 per game average.

Team was the youngest in the league both in age (24.3 yrs.) and experience (2.3 yrs.).

Purvis Short and Wayne Cooper were both selected to the NBA's All-Rookie Second Team.

Team finished below .500 for the first time in nine seasons and in last place in the division, 14 games behind Seattle.

Won 38, Lost 44

NOTES

Head coach Alvin Attles posted his 500th career coaching victory vs. Dallas on 1/2/82. At the time only five other coaches had ever reached that plateau in the NBA.

Bernard King (eighth), and World Free (ninth), became the first Warriors duo to finish among the league's top 10 in scoring in the same season since 1960-61 (Wilt Chamberlain and Paul Arizin).

The team's overall field goal percentage of .496 established a club record.

The team was tied with the Lakers for last in free throw percentage at .711.

Bernard King was the first Warrior in four years to appear in the NBA All-Star game. King also was selected to the All-NBA Second Team.

For the second straight year the Warriors were one game short of qualifying for the playoffs.

Won 45, Lost 37

NOTES

The Warriors missed 238 player games due to injury or illness, the most recorded in the NBA at that time. Team consisted of a club record 19 different players.

Joe Barry Carroll finished seventh with 24.1 points and Purvis Short placed 19th with 21.4 points in the league scoring race.

At the season's end head coach Alvin Attles relinquished his coaching position to become the club's general manager and John Bach directed the club for the final four games.

Team finished fifth in the division, 28 games behind Los Angeles.

NOTES

Joe Barry Carroll and Eric Floyd selected to NBA Western Conference All-Star Team.
Floyd set a club record for assists and finished second in the league.
Floyd also established a club record for three point field goals made.
Larry Smith finished sixth in the NBA in rebounding.
Smith was named NBA Player of the Week on March 29th.
First-year head coach George Karl finished second in Coach of the Year balloting.
Karl was named NBA Coach of the Month for March.
The team qualified for playoffs for the first time in 10 seasons.
In the first round of the playoffs, came back from 2-0 deficit to defeat Utah, the first team since 1956 to accomplish that feat in a five-game series.
Floyd hit an NBA playoff high of 51 points in Game #4 vs. Lakers, setting NBA playoff records with 39 points in the second half and 29 in the fourth quarter.

NOTES

Improved regular season record by 23 games, marking the fourth-greatest single season turnaround in NBA history.

Became the third team in NBA history to sweep an opponent that held the home court advantage in a best-of-five playoff series in first round meeting with Utah.

Set an all-time home attendance record with a total of 587,820 fans.

Scored an NBA record 57 third quarter points. Became the first NBA team in over four years to reach the 50-point mark in a quarter, by accomplishing the feat three times within 18 days in March.

Team made a franchise record .799 of its free throws.

All-Star/All-NBA Second Team member Chris Mullin finished fifth in the NBA in scoring and free throw percentage. He won the NBA Player of the Week Award for the period ending 1/23 and one week later became the first Warrior to win the NBA Player of the Month Award.

Mitch Richmond won the NBA Rookie of the Year Award and was the league's only unanimous All-Rookie First Team member.

Mullin and Richmond were the top scoring teammates in the NBA with a combined average of 48.6 ppg.

Manute Bol led the NBA in blocked shots (4.31 bpg) and established a league record by averaging a rejection every 5.13 minutes.

Won 43, Lost 39

NBA PLAYOFF STRUCTURE

1. Sixteen teams shall qualify for the playoffs. There shall be eight teams from each conference, consisting of the two division champions and the six other teams in each conference with the best winning percentage during the regular season.
2. The first round of the playoffs shall be a best-of-five series with all succeeding rounds, including the NBA Finals, being best-of-seven. All teams will participate in the first round; byes that formerly went to division winners have been eliminated.
3. All best-of- seven rounds will play a 2-2-1-1-1 format with the exception of the NBA Finals. That series will play a 2-3-2 format.

Following are the playoff pairings:

NOTE: Team 1 in each conference is the division winner with the better record, Team 2 is the other division winner and Teams 3-8 are ranked according to their regular season winning percentage.
